

Data and Privacy File Guides

Apple Support: Apple Support Communities - Profiles

May 2020

File name

Apple Support Communities - Profiles.csv

File description

This file contains the profile information for the account on the Apple Support Communities, along with content created by the user on the Communities site.

Why Apple keeps this information

Apple retains this information in order to honor the user's communication preferences, display information when a user posts, and to facilitate the use of the Community pages.

Field Name	Details
active	Whether the user's Communities account is currently listed as active on the community avatarURL	Link to the user's avatar image for the community awards	List of awards the user has earned within the community bio	User-provided biographic information for their community profile language	Language of the community to which the user is registered lastLoginGMT	Date on which the user last logged into the community in GMT level	Level that the user has reached within the community location	User-provided location information for their community profile memberSinceGMT	Date on which the user initially registered with the community in GMT occupation	User-provided occupation information for their community profile points	Total number of points the user has earned within the community profileUrl	Link to the user's profile page for the community specialities	List of specialities the user has earned within the community timezone	User's time zone based on region or the user's selection username	The user's alias within the community that the user is registered